

NATIONAL CRYPTOLOGIC
MUSEUM FOUNDATION

04 September 2012

Dear Colleague,

The National Cryptologic Museum Foundation is pleased to invite you to the General Membership Meeting on Wednesday, 17 October, at the JHU/APL Kossiakoff Center from 0900-1515. Registration and breakfast will begin at 0815 and lunch will be served from 1200-1330.

NSA Deputy Director, Mr. Chris Inglis, will give the opening remarks and will be followed by Lt Gen Michael Flynn, DIA Director, who has been invited to be the keynote speaker. Mr. Joel Brenner, author of America the Vulnerable, will give a presentation on the cyber threat to the civilian sector and will also host a book signing during lunch. The afternoon session will feature a panel composed of senior commanders of the Service Cryptologic Components discussing the challenges of the digital cyber age as each service stands up its own cyber command. Maj Gen (S) James H. Keffer, A2 Deputy Chief of Staff, HQ, USAF, Pentagon, will be the panel moderator.

The program agenda is available on our website at www.cryptologicfoundation.org. Information on registration and directions to the Kossiakoff Center are on the reverse side. If you have any questions, please call the office at 301-688-5436 or e-mail us at ncmf96@gmail.com (preferred) or cryptmf@aol.com. We look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely yours,

Eugene J. Becker
President
